UTJ. D. Bomburant has taken the storehouse, No. 363 Sixth street, between Main and Market, three doors from Main, for the transaction of the seed and agricultural business Acknowledging his indebtedness for past favors. he assures his hieuds, and all others wanting goods in his line, that nothing shall be left me done to merit a continuance of their favors.

CLOTHING TRADE.—It is in the recollection of the greater portion of our citizens, when a respectable out fit in the way of "ready-made clothing" could not be had in this city, and when it might also be said, that it was not attached to be engaged in the business respectable to be engaged in the business respectable to be engaged in the business respectable in forms the standard of the property o ty, of late years. That branch of trade has grown in importance, until it is looked upon oth as respectable and useful, and will con tinue to increase in favor, to a great extent, as oug as men of taste and discrimination are at the head of it. When a citizen, or a stranger, visiting the city, can step into such an establishment as that of J. M. Armstrong's, corner Fourth and Main, opposite the National Hatel, and can get any article in the line of men's or youth's ready made goods, such as cravats, coats, pants, vests, shirts, hosiery, under gar ments, gloves, shawle, guiters, scarls, suspend ers, &c., of the newest and most desirable style at such exceedingly low prices, they will not

WINCHESTER, Oct 15, 1:58. Messrs Editors: Per been "mum" for so General Commission Agent ong a time, that I expect you have entirely otten that I was one of the correspondents South side J. fferson St., bet. Fourth and Fifth, of your excellent paper. Various vicissitudes of life account for my silence. Since my last S office. 'Tis true I have lost no money, but by the aid of the invisible powers, I'll not embark in that business again soon. I will content my self by writing exclusively for the columns of the N. ROTHLE SETTLES, MILITANIES, ONthe Louisville Democrat, and Col. Whitely's paper, the Baltimore Clipper. Yes! ixclusively for these papers, sure! In a short time there will be two papers published at this place Mr. John A. Williams, the former editor and proprietor of the Winchester Chronicle, will issue a paper about the 24th of the present month, to be called the Kentucky Gazette. Major Catherwood is now engaged lishment, for Williams' office. Query—Can A Searce the south the of Latantic States two "intense American" papers run along here? I wish the "Pope fearers" a good time

(Over the left)! Speaking of the Chronicle, &c., reminds me of an article I saw in it in reference to candidates for Governorship. Col Flanagan, it: editor, preposes Gen. Juo. B. Huston, of this place, whereupon the distinguished (!) editor of the Whig, published at Mt. Steeling, says:
"Gen. Huston is a man of superior power as popular orator. When the masses are to be tirred up with soul breathing cloquence, give us the trumpet voice of Huston! There is a eweetness, a pleasantness about his clequeuce that is very difficult to withstand," de., de. Now, I ask if the preceding Fustion—this balder dash of an imaginative culturinst—is not ridiculous? By heavens, don't it cap the climax of all Know Nothingism!

From time to time, I see proposed by various correspondents of the Courier and the Domerat, certain "lions" among the Democracy, for Gubernatorial laurels. The man who "fills the bill" best of all those who have Litherto been proposed, is that sterling Democrat, the Hon. Beriah Magottin, of Mercer. He is indeed a stateman of the most lofty characteruence and patriotism. During the conte ! of 6, his elequent times reverberated from hill o hill, and in every hamlet within the confines of our table Commonwealth. Like the tall plume of Murat, his sabre over gleamed in the nickest of the fight. He withstood calmly and dispassionately, the anath mas of a people and a party mad with positivel teligious zeal. Now, don'the deserve remuneration for his many and pallant services? In his person, the Democracy of Kentucky would find a man more than eminently worthy of leading them on to title and to victory. Three times three cheers

Institute Fairfax street, in this place, ira and a going on there in front of "Na" all use." That man of indomitable come and "Fairfux" is becoming a auti treet-a delightful place for a promenade to and fro Instead of an old rickety preement, it is now level and hard as one a la ode Russ'. No other individual would have indertaken to repair it, save Limbay off the "National" in fine style, and will, herealter, be the street of our village.

The "National" is the leading hotel here. Its cuergetic proprietor, Mr Lindsay—us clever and intelligent clerk, Mr. Alt. Walreth-and the boss of the bar," Mr. Dan. Clarcy-lend to render it a favorite with our citizers and transient visitors. Clarcy is the prime of good follows. It is julipa "are great!"

I have had a fine time this morning. I will tell you, as uncle Phil. Pool would say, the "how" I came to have it. Well, "how," I and denty of "aweet Malaga" alorg, by constant shocks of ages, fairly rang with our "shout, and whoop, and wild hall so." The beauty of an tumu was druply and duly considered. The that the veteran of the Democrat was with t. — that he could "steal awhile away from every cumbering care," and the could "steal awhile away from every cumbering care," and the could "steal awhile away from every cumbering care," and the could be confirmed to the country of t the dim old woods—that he might once more I HAVE IN STORE A VERY COM-
